

30 August 1982

MEMORANDUM FOR:

DCI/OEXA/PAD

STAT

THROUGH : J. Kenneth McDonald
Chief, History Staff

FROM :

STAT

1. I am a new employee, having started work for the Agency 23 August 1982. Prior to becoming an Agency employee, I had two items accepted for publication. Both should be published in the next 6-12 months. They were:

STAT

2. In addition, I sent out some weeks ago an article on the American defense posture. To date I have heard nothing concerning possible publication of this piece. I have enclosed a copy of this article, marked A.

3. Finally, I intend soon to submit for publication a brief article entitled [redacted] I do not have a final draft of this piece yet, but am enclosing a draft which is essentially the same as that I will soon send off.

STAT

4. All four of these items were written before I became an Agency employee. Consequently, it would have been impossible for me to use information obtained in my work for the CIA in any of these articles.

5. None of these items will identify me with the CIA. They will either list my address as [redacted] (my former employer) or Washington, D.C.

STAT

6. I can be reached at [redacted] should there be further questions.
